35. THE NOBLE DUKE OF YORK

The noble Duke of York,

He had ten thousand men. (Hold up ten fingers.)

He marched them up to the top of the hill, (March on tip-toes in place.)

And he marched them down again. (March down until squatting.)

And when they were up, they were up. (March tall again.)

And when they were down, they were down. (March to squat.)

And when they were only half way up, (in half-way position)

They were neither up (Stretch tall.) nor down. (Squat down.)

(No more marching)

The noble Duke of York,

He had ten thousand men. (Hold up ten fingers.)

They beat their drums to the top of the hill (Pretend to beat drums upwards)

And they beat them down again. (Same downwards)

And when they were up, they were up. (March tall again.)

And when they were down, they were down. (March to squat.)

And when they were only half way up, (in half-way position)

They were neither up (Stretch tall.) nor down. (Squat down.)
